PLANNING BOARD POSTPONES CEMENT DECISION

The Wilmington Planning Board has postponed, for one week, its decision on the Dragon Cement case.

The Board, Tuesday night, voted in favor of the Cement Co. by a three to two vote, but one member, Bob Evans, was absent on official business. The board voted to delay the vote as a result until next week, when Mr. Evans may be presumed to be present and may cast his vote.

Mr. Evans, a week ago, stated that he 'leaned against the idea' of allowing the Dragon Cement Company to locate a distribution plant, on Eames St.

Voting in favor of allowing the cement plant to locate were the Chairman, Danny Gillis, Ray Fitzmaurice, and William Beers. Voting against were Howard Woolaver and Joseph H. Slater.

4 1/2 Pound Average

R. H. B. Smith, Vice President of the Dragon Company, together with Mr. Hayden, Ch. Engineer, and Mr. McCone visited the Planning Board in the early part of their meeting Tuesday evening, having flown up from New York City.

The group told the board that the greatest amount of cement that could be expected to escape into the atmosphere, in any working day would be 13 pounds, with the daily average over a long period being 4 1/2 pounds.

The vote of the Planning Board will not be conclusive as to the fate of the proposal of the cement company to locate in Wilmington. The Planning Board vote will be an opinion, which will be given to the Board of Appeals, for their use, but will not be binding on that board.

WILDCAT PONY LEAGUERS GIVEN TROPHY

The Wilmington Wildcats, Pony Leaguers, and champions of the Reading Pony League, received their trophies, last Thursday, at the Community Center, in Reading.

In a well attended banquet the boys received individual trophies, and the team received a trophy to keep until next year's contest.

If the Wilmington Wildcats should win the trophy three times the Pony League Trophy will be theirs forever.

All members of the team were present for the ceremony, led by Bob Hastings and Johnny Vaughn, team managers.

Receiving the trophies were Rick Proten, Ed Casey, Jimmy Melzar, Joe Beaton, Jimmy Gillis, Tommy Grant, Dick Allard, Ronnie Outridge, Mike Farrell, Jim Szadis, Elwin Rice, Jeff Williamson, Jerry Paglia, and John Cavanaugh.

The team, which is sponsored by the Wilmington Community Fund, won 13 games and had 1 loss during the past season.

One of eight teams in the Reading Pony League (three of them Stoneham teams) the Wilmington Wildcats are now finishing their second year of league play, and are mighty proud to have won the trophy.

GLEN ROAD SCHOOL TO OPEN IN MID NOVEMBER

The new Off-Glen Road School opens in Mid November, Supt of Schools John Collins has announced.

The exact date of the opening has not yet been determined.

FIRST DEER

Honors for first deer, this season, goes to Fred Lippert of 22 West Street.

Fred shot his 162 pounder in New Hampshire, Sunday morning, just as the sun rose.

NO ANDOVER 20 WILMINGTON 6

A very much outweighed Wilmington team lost to North Andover, on the Wilmington grounds by a 20 - 6 score, Monday afternoon.

The Scarlet Knights of No. Andover had a line that averaged 20 pounds over that of the Wilmington Wildcats, and were able to push their way through, almost at will, in spite of valiant line-defense by Capt. Eddie Palino, who shared defense honors with Eddie Casey and Johnny McCabe.

The absence of Al MacDonald, fleet end, out of the game because of a slight kidney injury a week ago, was keenly felt.

MacDonald sat in the broadcasting stand, helping Lawrence Radio Station WCCM give a play by play description of the game - the first time that a Wilmington game has been broadcast.

Wilmington missed four good chances during the game, which could have made the difference between victory and defeat.

THE PENALTY OF BEING A GOOD SERVANT

Our Former Town Manager, Fred Calabrese, has sold his home. $2500 of the sale price has been placed in an escrow account, in the Mechanics Savings Bank, to satisfy judgement, if there should be one, in the suit of Campanella & Cardi. That firm is suing him for that sum, alleging that he stopped them from working.

Readers will remember that on April 16th
Calabrese stopped work at an illegal gravel pit off Andover Street. That is what the suit is about.

The attorney for the bootleg gravel operator consented to a finding by the court, which to our way of thinking vindicates Calabrese. Cala-brese was working with the full knowledge and consent of our Board of Selectmen and our Town Counsel. Yet he is being penalized, for being a good servant. He is unable to use his own money.

That gravel pit was not only illegal, but there is some evidence that it extended over to property that was not owned by the bootleg operator. At least we know that the owner of adjoining land has sought advice of counsel as to the wisdom of suing for gravel which has allegedly been taken without the owner's permission.

Which makes it all the more ironic.

WHY NATIONAL POLYCHEMICALS OPPOSE

The National Polychemicals Company, on Eames Street, is unhappy about the proposed wholesale cement distribution plant, across the street from their plant.

Cement, to them, is just like radio-activity to the average human. Radio activity can be harmless, but there arrives a point, in every individual, where it becomes harmful, and no one can determine exactly where and when that point has arrived, until it is too late.

Such is the picture painted by National Polychemicals.

Its the alkali in the cement dust that is the villain, according to these people.

Their product, which is made in a considerable quantity, must be kept with certain rigid specifications, from a viewpoint of acidity,
and after the alkali gets in its too late.

National Polychemicals cannot say just when they would arrive at a point when there would be "too much" alkali - and they wish they could.

There is a vat in their plant which holds as much as 10,000 gallons of their product, for periods of as long as six months. It has to be "open to the air" in the same way that a wine vat has to be "open to the air" while the wine is working.

The opening consists of a hole 6 inches in diameter, in the upper half of the container.
It would seem that such a vat, inside a closed building, would protect its product - but National Polychemicals is shivering.

It wouldn't do any good, they say, to install air conditioning. Air conditioning might work 99% of the time, but the 1% that is left is just as bad.

This is the problem that faces the Board of Appeals, in their consideration of the Dragon Cement Company appeal.

Dragon Cement is more than willing to cooperate. The amount of free cement that will get into the air is really nothing at all, they say, and they feel that National Polychemicals has nothing to worry about.

THE TRUCKING TERMINAL

The proposed trucking terminal, on lower Lowell Street, has an entirely different type of problem.

There one finds that the neighbors, on Westdale Avenue, object, from a noise viewpoint.

Our readers will remember that last March there was a proposal that this land be rezoned for business, and that it was turned down by the town. The proposal was an "open end" one.
"let me have this a business zone," one of the owners told the voters "and we'll get the business".

But the voters wouldn't buy that. They were not interested in a "pig in the poke" proposition. Neither were the people of Westdale Ave.

Now we have a proposition which cannot be so described. A trucking company wants to locate at the site.

If ever there is to be a trucking terminal in this town there could be no better site than this place, it is agreed by members of the Planning Board. They have pointed out to themselves that a trucking terminal here would require very little traffic on local roads, a fact that could have a considerable effect on the local economy.

But the people on Westdale Avenue don't look at it that way. The town rezoned the land, they point out, and the town said that adjoining their land should be a residential district - and they want it kept that way. To them the re-zoning of the land was a promise that it would be kept that way.

It will have to go through a Town Meeting, anyway, which means that everyone can get his say on the question.

TOWN NOTES

The Leaves Are Down

November is here, and the trees are mostly bare of their leaves. The wind, last weekend finished a job that was started a week earlier.

Only one day of rain, - and that was last Saturday, when
.43 inches of rain spoiled
football playing.

Old and New

The Rev. Robert E. Swnders, newly installed minister of the Congregational Church is the 20th man to fill the pulpit of this church.

He has been likened, by one person who knows him fairly well, to Joe Courtney, our former TM., by reason of his dynamic drive.

There are several noteworthy co-incidences which should be reported concerning the new minister.

He was a classmate of our former Minister, the Rev.
Clyde Martin, back in World War II days, at Fort Devens Chaplain School, and spent a night as the Rev. Martin's guest, in the Congregational Parsonage, an event that he didn't remember until after he had decided to accept the call to Wilmington.

A third member of that same class was the Rev. Albert C.
Ronander, the Administrative Assistant to the Congregational Council in New York City.

So it turns out that the installation was also a reunion of war-time buddies - but not with the pranks that one generally associates with such re-unions.

We had quite a chat with the Rev. Ronander after the ceremonies. We were attracted to him because of the way he waved his hands, during the Charge to the Minister. It reminded us of a clockmaker describing how the wheels go round.

Mr. Ronander told us that he waved his hands that way in his first sermon, delivered out in Chicago, and the Deacon of the church advised him not to.

In his second sermon he did not wave his hands - and the Deacon came around shortly afterwards, and pled with him to resume - which he has been doing ever since!

Hoods and Stoles

The installation of the Rev.
Robert Sanders, at the Congregational Church, last Friday, was an occasion for the people at the service to see and wonder at the colors on the gowns of the various clergymen.

In a university town there would be no occasion for a comment, but perhaps it might be appropriate here.

The hood of the gown denotes by colors both the degree that the wearer has, and the school which he attended, and this is not necessarily referring to clergymen. The color at the border of the hood is in direct reference to the degree, i.e. a clergyman, with a Divinity degree, will have a red border. The colors inside the border refer to the school.

A broad border color means that the wearer has had a Doctor's Degree awarded, i.e. a broad red color denotes a Doctor of Divinity.

Some clergymen also denote that they have a doctorate in divinity by wearing three black stripes on the sleeves of their gowns.

Stoles, which are worn around the neck somewhat in the manner of scarves, provide colors of an entirely different meaning. The Rev. Mr. Sanders and the Rev. Chester Miller were the only ones to wear stoles
during the ceremonies, last Friday.

The Stole is a liturgical reference to the season. There are five different colors,
each of which is worn according to the time of the year in the church calendar. Both Mr.
Sanders and Mr. Miller were wearing green stoles, last Friday.

And it had nothing to do with
St. Patrick's Day.

PLANNING BOARD WANTS TO RELEASE CYPRESS ST BOND

The Planning Board has written a letter, asking that the bond which guarantees the finishing of Cypress Street, be released and discharged.

The Bond had been given by James P. Donahue, as part of a real estate development program.

The Selectmen have requested TM Lancaster to have the Town Engineer check the street.

CEMETARY DEPARTMENT REQUESTS LEAF BLOWER

Francis Downs, Superintendent of the Cemetery, and in charge of the parks of Wilmington under the Wilmington Planning Board, Tuesday evening requested the Planning Board to consider buying a leaf blower, in next year's budget.

The blower, Downs told the committee, would cost in the neighborhood of $200, and would save many hours work.

Downs also outlined plans for Silver Lake Beach, next spring He plans to enlarge the beach area, and to have grass planted closer to the lake, so as to have a larger grass area.

Downs also asked the Planning Board to consider having a picnic area, at the Town Park, in the open field near Main St. He reminded the board that this was originally a request by past Town Manager Fred Calabrese.

LETTERS

1 Fairview Avenue
Wilmington, Mass.
15 October 1959

Dear Larz:

After reading the editorial, 'Open House,' in your 22 October issue, I believe your readers should be made aware of other aspects of both the advanced publicity given to the event in question and certain related matters.

It is not true when you state that 'an Open House was held without taking steps to insure that all the parents were alerted.' A mimeographed notice of the Junior-Senior High School PTA meeting and associated open house was prepared; Mr. McMahon has personally assured me that sufficient copies of that notice to provide one to every pupil were distributed to all home room teachers not later than the Friday before the meeting. Yet we are aware that in many cases these notices did not reach the parents. There is good evidence that in some cases the teachers did not distribute these notices to the students; there are also valid reasons for believing that many of the pupils deliberately destroyed the notices in hopes that their parents would thereby not learn of the open house. The PTA has plans for reducing this problem in the future.

As regards the lack of newspaper publicity, for some weeks prior to the meeting officers of the High School PTA attempted to find a parent who would be willing to assume the responsibility of Publicity Chairman; as you are aware, members of your staff were consulted as to suggestions in this regard. Up to the time of the meeting, no one willing to accept the position had been located; a similar lack continues to exist with regard to the positions of Hospitality Chairman and Membership-Home Room Contact System Chairman. The duties of these positions just can not be properly performed as long as we are forced to rely on the ad hoc cooperation of the present members of the Executive Committee, all of whom are more than occupied with other and equally important activities.

Secondly, your editorial omitted mention of the fact that the so-called 'Open House' was only a subsidiary part of the overall PTA program of that evening. You state that forty or more parents visited certain individual teachers; yet only some twenty-five had sufficient interest in the overall aspects of the high school educational program to attend the main part of the meeting where Mr Hamilton and Miss Sharp provided an excellent insight with regard to the program of the Guidance Department.

The officers of the High School PTA hope to create an organization which, in cooperation with the school authorities, can assist in providing the youth of Wilmington with the educational opportunities which they will need in preparing for the world in which they will live. We can be successful only if sufficient of the parents with sons and daughters in the Junior-Senior High School have enough interest to attend our meetings and assist in the work of the organization. Furthermore, we need ideas as to program topics that would be of interest, concern, and assistance to the parents. Vague comments and rumors of dissatisfaction with our high school are widespread, but there appears reluctance to voice concrete topics capable of the type of factual analysis and discussion that might lead to improvements, where such are needed, in our school system. We would welcome—in fact, we solicit—topics, areas, and problems that might be suitable for discussion at future PTA meetings.

Sincerely,
William K. Wilder, Jr.,
President, Wilmington Jr.
Sr. High School PTA.

Dear Larz:

I enjoy your newspaper very much, especially the articles about the history of the town. Keep them coming. I also enjoy your editorials and Town Notes.

I was surprised to learn that Susie's Sonnets were written by a former teacher of mine, Sylvia Neilson. I enjoy them and was glad to learn where she was. The last I heard was, I believe, when she was an officer in the WACS.

Yours truly,
George E. Gates

Wilmington Mass.
Oct. 21, 1959

Dear Larz:

Would you please print this in your newspaper - maybe some can give an intelligent explanation.

Why are janitors so underpaid? I believe they are one of the most underpaid departments of the town.

They keep our schools clean and safe, yet most people I've talked to believe they have nothing much to do. They think the janitors have a 'racket'. I thought the same until I joined their ranks. I soon found out different. Don't get me wrong, I didn't take this job because I thought it was easy.

I was after another position but after waiting a year for an opening I took the first job that came along.

I have three children to support and after working for a company for sixteen years I was laid off and was desperate. Not knowing anything, I could not be particular about the pay. That's the penalty for not having an education - and is why I intend to put my children through college.

I thought I would write this to get it off my chest and let the good people of this town know that the maintenance men and janitors (or custodians, as we prefer) do work and are deserving of a raise to help meet the rising cost of living.

I'm not writing this for selfish reasons, just because I am a janitor, because I hope I don't have to stay as one long. I can't afford to. But I think the rest of them are deserving of a raise to bring them up near equal to some of the other departments.

I think that the town officials will agree with me that they have been doing wonderful work.

Yours very truly
A Custodian

(cont fr Fr Pg)

The most outstanding was in the last quarter, when Woods succeeded in getting in the clear, and was ready to receive a passed ball, but was prevented because of a fumble by one of Wilmington's backs.

Johnny McCabe recovered the fumble, and elected to run around right end. He was already pressed by far ranging No. Andover backs when he made his decision.

No. Andover's QB Al Foster was in command for most of the four periods. The Scarlet Knights scored two touchdowns in the first half, and then after a brief surge by Wilmington, scored their third in the second half.

Wilmington's lone touchdown was by slim-hipped Butch Boudreau in the third quarter. No Andover elected to receive as the game began. They marched down the field, with their linemen overpowering the Wilmington line, to a final pass, which brought the ball to the Wilmington five yard line.

Wilmington recovered the ball on a fumble, only to lose it three plays later on another fumble, on the one foot line, and the Knight's Dilendik carried the ball across the line.

The kick for the conversion was wide.

In the second period a North Andover player pounced on the ball, in a Wilmington fumble, on Wilmington's 48 yard line, and the Knights marched up to the Wilmington six yard line, where QB Henry made a left end run which looked like a second touchdown, - but No. Andover was penalized for clipping, and the ball went back to the 20 yard line.

It took No. Andover three plays to get back those 20 yards, and with seconds remaining in the second period they swept across the line, with Foster carrying the ball. Again the conversion failed.

The third period saw Wilmington's surge. Johnny McCabe Tom Del Visco and Butch Boudreau clicked as they carried the ball down to the 33 yard line of No. Andover.

Again the Knights surged through and drove the Wilmington backwards, on three Wilmington plays, forcing a punt on the 4th down, at the 48 yard line.

No. Andover then marched, with Wilmington's resistance beaten down as the Knights marched.

Sanborn received the ball on a pass from Foster, at the 25 yard line, and left a line of Wilmington tacklers on the ground behind him, as he plowed up to the 19 yard line where he was finally stopped.

The ball was carried for 3 plays, and after a pass Pitman carried it over the line for No. Andover's third touchdown.

A pass then made the score 20 to 0.

Butch Boudreau recovered the ball, on the kickoff, at the 17 yard line, and electrified the Wilmington fans by making his way to the 49 yard line, going right up the middle.

After a couple of plays McCabe passed to Ryan at the 30 yard line, and Ryan made a spectacular run to the 15, where a pass by McCabe to Woods took the ball to the 9 yard line. Butch Boudreau then took the ball for four consecutive runs, being stopped three times, but plunging through the line at the fourth try for Wilmington's only touchdown of the game.

The conversion failed.

The fourth quarter saw No. Andover fighting through stiff resistance, but unable to get to the promised land. They were on Wilmington's 39 yard line when the final whistle blew.

FORMER MINISTERS AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
The Rev. Stanley Cummings, Buckland (Mass.) Congregational Church, and the Rev. Clyde Martin, Major, (CH.C) U S Air Force, as they appeared during the installation of the Rev. Robert Sanders, at the Wilmington Congregational Church, last Friday. Both are former pastors of the Wilmington Church.

INSTALLATION OF REV. ROBERT SANDERS AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Rev. Robert Sanders was installed as pastor of the Wilmington Congregational Christian Church, Friday evening, after having been accepted by the Woburn Council of Churches.

Two former ministers of the Church, the Rev. Stanley Cummings, and the Rev. Clyde Martin, were among the clergy present for the event.

The Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Miller Dean of the Harvard School of Divinity, who delivered the sermon took his text from the Fourth Chapter of Luke "And He stood up to Preach".

Dean Miller was one of the nine clergymen who took part in the installation.

The Call to Worship was by Chaplain Clyde Martin, USA.

The Prayer of Confession was read by the Rev. Whitmore E. Beardsley, minister of the Pilgrim Congregational Church in Lexington.

The Scripture Lesson (II Corinthians 5:11-21) was by the Rev. Chester E. Miller, of the Congregational Church in Wilton Connecticut.

Greetings from the Wilmington Council of Churches was extended by the Rev. Richard W. Harding, of the Wilmington Methodist Church, who informed the new Minister that he had been elected Vice President of the Council before he had even arrived in Wilmington.

The Charge to the Minister was by the Rev. Albert C. Renander, Administrative Assistant to the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches, New York City. "May God deny you peace, but give you glory!" was his closing remark.

The Charge to the Congregation was by the Rev. Walter R. Greenwood, area Minister, Northeast Area, Massachusetts Conference of Congregational Christian Churches.

The Prayer of Installation was by the Rev. Stanley Cummings, and the Benediction was by the Rev. Mr. Sanders.

In addition to the numerous clergymen the full board of Selectmen of Wilmington were present, Mrs. Drew and the gentlemen, with their ladies.

Donald H. Kidder, Chairman of the Board, welcomed Mr. Sanders to Wilmington in the name of the Town.

Samuel H. Bertwell, Senior Deacon of the Church led the church in the response to the Charge, by the Rev. Walter R. Greenwood.

The music during the installation was in charge of Kenneth Kelley, organist. The full choir of the church sang the Magnificat, by Healey Willan.

The Ecclesiastical Council The installation of the Rev. Sanders followed the Ecclesiastical Council, held at 4 pm and a dinner, at which all the invited guests were present. 30 delegates were present.

from the Woburn Ministers Association.

They were present to witness the formal transfer of Mr. Sanders' full certification from the Fairfield County (Conn.) Association to the Woburn Association.

The Rev. Norman Smith, of Winchester, Chairman of the Woburn Association, presided over the meeting, and Miss Esther Goodale of Reading, Clerk, took the minutes of the meeting.

Mrs. Howard Bedell, Clerk of the Congregational Church, read the minutes of the Church meeting in which Mr. Sanders was called to this pastorate.

A thirty minute paper was presented by the new minister, stating his Christian experience, ministry and theology.

This was followed, as is the custom, by an open discussion period. The Council then took an official vote, in executive session, and unanimously voted to receive Mr. Sanders into the Woburn Association, and to proceed, with the Wilmington congregation, with his installation as pastor of the church

WHY GIVE TO THE G.O.P.?

Mrs. Albert E. Kitchener, Finance chairman of Wilmington Republican Town Committee answers this question.

Why does the Republican party in Massachusetts need $500,000 in an off-election year for campaign purposes? A pertinent question every potential contributor might ask.

The parallel between marketing a political leadership and selling the products of a business is very striking.

Certainly, a business could not be expected to run for 10 months of the year without capital, obtain funds in the last two months of the year, and show a profit. Neither can the Republican party be expected to run for 22 months without funds, launch a drive for finances two-months before election time, and hope to see a majority of its candidates successful.

If the Republican party is given a full-time budget, a solid foundation, based on a long range program, can be prepared as the springboard for the final effort in the last stage of an election campaign.

Look at the great men, you as Republicans, have given to the Nation. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, Senior US Senator Leverett Saltonstall and Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. who has done an outstanding job in dealing with the cold war machinations of the Russians. All from this state. I take great pride in telling this to you.

Because of civic duty (the jury calls me) I must finish my work on finance through others and the mailman. Will you be so kind as to read your mail and send me your contribution to-day? Keep these and other men in our government. We need them more now than ever. Why Give To G.O.P? Tell it to the Nation!!

CONTOUR MAP FOR URBAN RENEWAL MAP COMPLETED

A contour map, showing one foot differences in elevation for the projected Urban Renewal Area, has been completed by the Town Engineer.

Al Savignac, assisted by Bob Lavache, Student Engineer, made the survey on authority of the Town Manager, for the Wilmington Housing Authority.

The map shows that the lowest elevation, above sea level, in the area, is at the small brook which goes under Church Street near the Fire Station. The elevation at this point is 84 feet.

480 feet further upstream, at the 'pond' in Rotary park the elevation is 84.7 feet.

The highest elevation, as may be suspected, is at Wilmington Square. The center of the intersection of Main Street, and Church St - Burlington Avenue, is 105 feet above sea level.

BUS TRANSPORTATION EXTENSION UP TO TOWN AND EASTERN MASS

The State Department of Public Utilities has advised the Selectmen of Wilmington, in a letter, that any extension of the Eastern Mass Bus route into Wilmington, from No. Woburn will have to be done in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 159A, General Laws.

The Selectmen had asked the DPU to have the North-Woburn Boston bus route extended up Eames and Woburn Streets towards Wilmington Square, via Wildwood and Church Streets.

It will first be necessary, according to the letter, for the town to take up the matter directly with the Eastern Mass Transportation Co. If the company is agreeable, the town will issue a license, and then an application will be made to the DPU.

WILMINGTON SKATERS ARE PRACTICING AT WORCESTER ARENA

The Worcester Arena, 50 miles from Wilmington, is the place where about 50 Wilmington skaters are doing their practice sessions.

Every Sunday morning the skaters assemble in front of the High School, where drivers take them, 5 and 6 to a car, to Worcester.

Its all part of the Wilmington Skating Club's program to keep the local boys and girls in trim for the coming season.

Johnny Waugh, President of the club, is particularly happy about the way some people are volunteering to drive the youngsters to Worcester.

'Speaking for myself' says Johnny, 'I can't thank these volunteers enough - and I know the kids appreciate it, too'.
